Bra Art to be Exhibited at the First Friday Art Walk

POCATELLO - Portneuf Medical Center and the Pocatello Women's Health Clinic will present "Bra Art" at the First Friday Art Walk in Old Town Pocatello. The goal of the exhibit is to help raise awareness about breast cancer with October being Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

The bras were decorated by employees from area clinics and departments at the hospital and include themes like "Annie Get Your Guns Checked." The exhibit will be at La Bella Vita Salon, 127 North Main in Pocatello on Friday, October 1 from 5 – 8 p.m.

Pink lemonade and cookies will be served and information about the upcoming Brake for Breakfast, sponsored by Portneuf Medical Center, will be available. For more information, please call Jennifer Anthony at 239-8142.

For more information about the Bra Art exhibit, please call Brad Huerta 239 -1052 or 251-2768. You may also contact Jennifer Anthony at 239-8142 or 241-7253.
